

Against the Grain Theatre is Seeking New Board Members

Against the Grain Theatre (AtG) is looking for enthusiastic and committed individuals to join its Board of Directors and help guide its mission and development in its Second Act. AtG has recently welcomed Pulitzer Prize winning librettist Royce Vavrek as its second Artistic Director. Under Royce's dynamic leadership, AtG is on the cusp of an exciting transformation. AtG's Second Act is marked by a commitment to innovation, diversity, and inclusivity, with an ambitious vision to push the boundaries of operatic and vocal works.

AtG is the creator of the internationally acclaimed film Messiah Complex and is currently incubating exciting new works, including an operatic adaptation of Thomas King's Indians on Vacation by composer Ian Cusson and librettist Royce Vavrek (co-commission with Edmonton Opera) and the evolution of Identity: A Song Cycle by composer Dinuk Wijeratne, poet Shauntey Grant, and baritone Elliot Madore.

AtG is governed by a voluntary Board of Directors who help drive the mission of AtG. We are looking for board members who are passionate about serving the artistic community and supporting the creation of innovative operatic and vocal works. We are especially interested in individuals who bring a diversity of experience and knowledge, including knowledge in financial planning, marketing and fundraising, and knowledge and experience with non-profit organizations in the arts sector.
